MCINERNY SHOE

The steamer Mauna Loa returned rom Hawaii this morning without having had any extraordinary experiences with whales, sharks or other fishy members of the animal kingdom but bearing the proud distinction of having broken the record for time on the run from Honolulu to the Molokai

The Mauna Loa made her recordreaking run on the outward trip. She made the trip from the Honolulu lightouse to the Molokai light in two hours and forty-six minutes. The distance between these two points is thirty five miles. As far as is known this is the best time which has ever been made

The Wilder Steamship Company per ple have, however, lately been making good time on the same run with their new steamer Likelike, which is now on the Molokal run in place of the old Le hua. Two weeks ago the Likelike and the steamer Maul left Honolulu togeth-er.. Although the Maul is known to be no slouch as far as speed is concerned the Likelike walked right away from nolulu start and the lighthouse in fess than three hours. As the Likelike is not in port now the exact time could not be ascertained today.

All the first class yachts of the Hawall Yacht Club with the Gladys will leave tonight at 10 o'clock for the cruise around the island. Waialun will be the first stopping place, where they expect to drop anchor tomorrow morn ing at daylight. The yachts starting will be: Helene, Commodore Whitney; Spray, Vice-Commodore H. E. Picker; La Paloma, Captain Macfarlune; Hawaii, Captain Sorenson, There will be no restrictions as to crews. Tomorrow and the most of Sunday will be spent at Waialua.

The Gladys, which was supposed not to sail, will go. Mr. Hobron and Allan Dunn went down this morning to Pearl Harbor to bring her up. She will be put on the ways and cleaned up in double-quick time. The offer of C. W quainted all Government officials in Macfarlane to assist Mr. Hobron with delivery of the new Conrad launch made it possible for Mr. Hobros and the Gladys to join the race around

The start will be made from th Oceanic wharf.
